We responded on December 06, 2020 (EUA27073 SN 0004) the following:

Included with this response are the n=11 narratives describing the severe COVID-19 cases at the time of the 11 Nov data snapshot. There is one case (US3312605) that we would like to bring to your attention since we have become aware of new information since the 11 and 25 November data snapshots. The Investigator at this site suspects that the information provided by this participant may not be reliable and an investigation is currently ongoing. In light of the potential impact of this development, we expect to have resolution by December 11th, 2020.

Moderna and the Principal Investigator take the accuracy and completeness of all data seriously. As such, we are in close communication with the investigator and currently awaiting final assessment from his investigation to fully determine the accuracy and completeness of the data reported for this case to the Sponsor. We will provide further information as soon as it is available.
